

Fort Yamhill State Heritage Area

Dedication

Saturday, Sept. 9, 2006

9:30-11:30 a.m.

Please join us September 9, 2006 at 9:30 a.m. as we dedicate Oregon's newest state park, the Fort Yamhill State Heritage Area. The park tells the story of two peoples, and we are honored to have both represented at this event:

9:30 a.m. Tribal Drum and Invocation

Speakers: Mary Oberst, Oregon First Lady

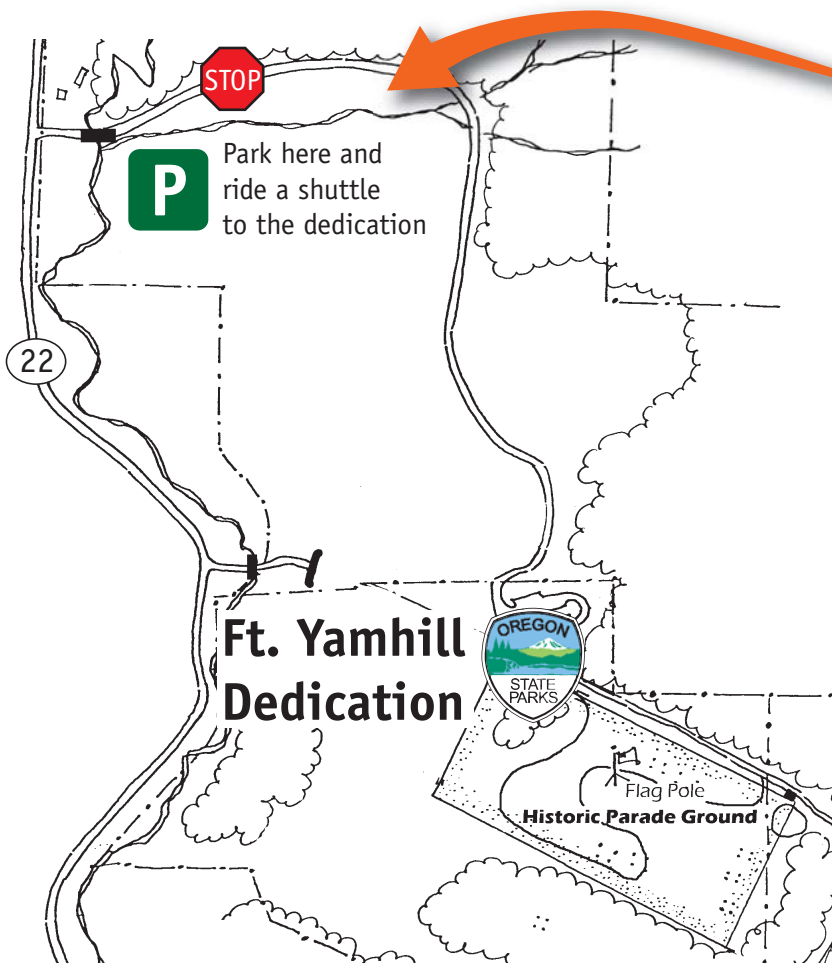

Cheryle A. Kennedy, Chairwoman, Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde

Jim Parr, Oregon State Parks and Recreation Commissioner

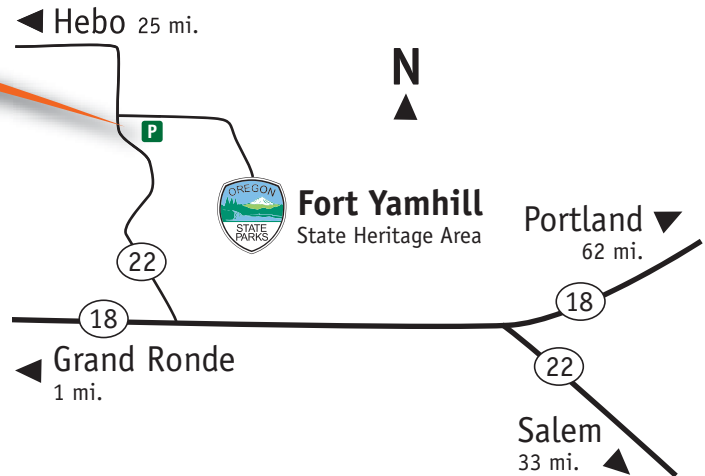

Ribbon cutting, flag raising, park and archaeological tours

11:30 a.m. Dedication ends, park officially open

Parking

Getting there

More information

Siobhan Taylor

The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde
siobhan.taylor@grandronde.org
503-879-1920

Chris Havel

Oregon Parks and Recreation Department
chris.havel@state.or.us
503-986-0722