

Welcome to a uniquely Oregon experience! With the luxuriant backdrop of Tryon Creek State Natural Area as inspiration, eight Oregon artists will bring their aesthetic vision to life on the Ruth Pennington Trillium Trail throughout 2005 and 2006.

Called Natural Cycles, the exhibit will showcase forest art—using natural and recycled materials—to celebrate the bond between people and the living Earth. The themes that artists have chosen may be distinctly different, but all reveal a wondrous new awareness of this park as a natural masterpiece.

As you walk the trail, we hope you will stop to enjoy these artistic expressions.

NATURAL CYCLES

A Celebration of Art in the Forest

Thanks to the following groups who made this project possible:

OPRD • Friends of Tryon Creek State Park • The Oregon Cultural Trust. Investing in Oregon's arts, humanities and heritage • Regional Arts and Culture Council • Gales Creek Insurance