Bullards Beach, located at the mouth of the Coquille River on Oregon’s southern coast, offers visitors the chance to stroll along an ocean beach, ride horses, explore a lighthouse, and launch boats to go fishing on the river.

Year-round Camping
- 101 full-hookup sites (sewer, electricity, water)
- 82 electrical sites with water
- 13 yurts (6 pet-friendly)
- Paved parking, picnic table, and fire ring at all sites
- Horse camp with eight primitive sites
- Hiker/biker camp
- Flush toilets and hot showers
- Yurt meeting hall
- RV dump station
- Day-use area with beach access, picnicking and historic lighthouse
- Boat ramp on the Coquille River with courtesy docks for loading and unloading from mid-May through October.

Universal Access
Seven campsites (A59, A60, A63, B58, C7, and C9) and three yurts (C11, C39, and C57) are accessible according to the Americans with Disabilities Act. A Learning Environment

Junior Ranger activities designed for ages 6–12 years are a fun way for kids to learn about salmon, wildlife, bicycle safety, and river travel. Check the registration booth for schedules. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

More to See and Do
Bike and Hike
- 11 miles of designated trails for riding
- Trails lead to the beach as well as to acres of dunes. Bring your bicycle for a scenic ride through the park.

Horse Play
- The park’s horse camp near the beach has three double and five quadruple corrals. Enjoy four miles of ocean beach and 11 miles of designated trails for riding.

Visit the Lighthouse
- The historic Coquille River Lighthouse, built in 1896, stands at the end of the park’s beach access road. Decommissioned in 1939, it no longer serves as a navigational aid. The “fog room” contains historical displays and a small gift shop; the lighthouse is open for interpretive tours led by park volunteers from mid-May through the end of September. Tour the lighthouse and learn about its historical significance.

More to See and Do
- Bandon by the Sea: Visit the shops, galleries, and restaurants in Old Town Bandon, the center of a community called “The Cranberry Capital of Oregon” or “The Storm-Watching Capital of the World,” depending on the season. For more information about activities in Bandon, stop by the visitor information center in Old Town.
- Nearby state parks: Across the river near Bandon, Face Rock State Scenic Viewpoint overlooks an impressive offshore monolith and a beach full of statuesque rock formations.
