Play It Safe

Enjoy the park, but please obey posted safety rules. This is a remote area, and emergency medical assistance may be difficult to reach or take longer to arrive.

Need to cancel your reservation? Follow these guidelines: If your reservation is for today, call 541-869-2365. Otherwise, call 1-800-452-5687.

An Oregon Trail Rest Stop

After following the Snake River for 330 miles, Oregon Trail pioneers rested above the bend in the river, then bid farewell and continued their journey. Wagon ruts are still visible near the park.

Replica cover wagons sit at the park entrance. Two Oregon Trail sites are located within two miles of the park. Information is available at the registration booth. For more information, visit the Natural Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center on Flagstaff Hill just east of Baker City.

Cabin Camping

Stay at the park while enjoying a roof over your head by renting one of our log cabins, open March 1–Nov. 30. Each cabin is 13' x 13' with a 6-foot long porch. A full bed and two bunks with vinyl-covered mattresses sleep four people. Each has electricity, heat, and air conditioning. Cabin 1 is pet friendly.

Brownlee Reservoir

The park's boat ramp and docks lead to Brownlee Reservoir. To check on current reservoir levels, call the park at 541-869-2365 or Idaho Power at 1-800-422-3143 or visit www.idahopower.com. Brownlee Reservoir has excellent catfish, bass and crappie fishing. There is a fish-cleaning station by the boat ramp parking lot.

Nature Shows

Wildflowers decorate the hillsides at Farewell Bend in the spring and summer. If you're lucky, you'll see wildlife like deer, pronghorn antelope, geese, eagles, and quail. Park staff frequently present evening interpretive programs in the summer; check with a park host for the schedule.

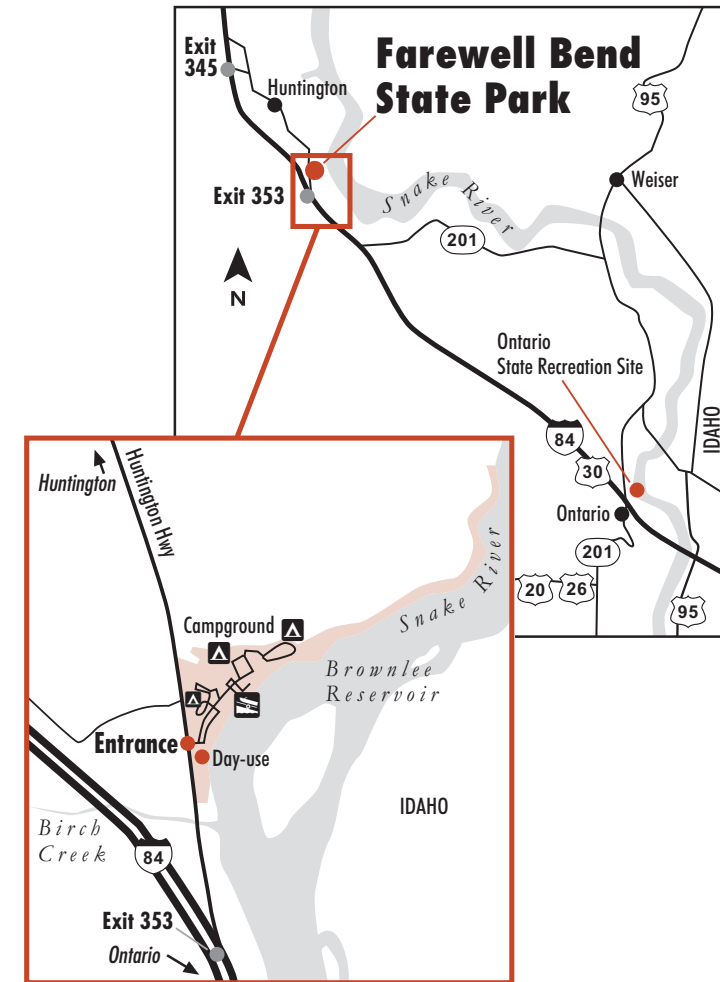

Visit a Frontier Town

In 1870, 14 years before the railroad arrived in the area, Miller's Stagecoach Station was established in nearby Huntington. Learn more about the town at the Huntington Museum. Information: visithuntingtonor.org.
