Camping Rates
Rates are subject to change. You can get up-to-date information by calling 1-800-551-6949 or visiting www.oregonstateparks.org.

Driving on the Beach
Motor vehicles are prohibited on the beach from the Peter Iredale access point and the Gearhart beach ramp. Maximum speed is 25 mph.

Reserve early! Reserve campsites, yurts and group areas one day to nine months in advance by calling 1-800-452-5687. Campsites and yurts are also reservable through www.oregonstateparks.org.

Ships, Waves, and Wildlife
Watch waves breaking and big ships crossing the famous Columbia River bar from the observation platform near the South Jetty on Clatsop Spit. Wildlife viewing platforms on Clatsop Spit, overlooking Trestle Bay, and near Swash Lake are excellent places for birdwatching.

Please note: All dogs must be on a leash March 15-July 15 (or longer) on a short stretch of Clatsop Spit. Driving and vehicles are also prohibited. Look for signs.

Summertime programs include Junior Ranger activities, evening campfire presentations, and guided kayak tours.

Explore the Historic Military Site
The Fort Stevens Military Reservation guarded the mouth of the Columbia River from the Civil War through World War II. Explore the gun batteries and climb to the commander's station for a view of the Columbia River and South Jetty.

Guided tours: Enjoy tours of the underground Battery Mishler and the back of a restored 1954 “duke-and-a-half” army truck. Tours, special events, and museum services are courtesy of the nonprofit Friends of Old Fort Stevens.

Shipwreck remains: The wreck of the Peter Iredale lies near the southern beach access parking area. The English sailing ship ran aground during a storm in 1906.

Western snowy plovers nest along some parts of the Oregon coast—watch for special signs during nesting season.

More History Survives Nearby
Visit the Fort Clatsop unit of Lewis and Clark National Historical Park, where the Corps of Discovery spent the winter of 1805-06. Astoria, the first permanent European-American settlement on the west coast, features Fort Astoria, a reconstructed fur-trading outpost; several museums, including the Columbia River Maritime Museum; and historic homes.
