Shaded by a myrtlewood forest, Alfred A. Loeb State Park's campground lies along a bend of the scenic Chetco River eight miles inland from Oregon's southern coastline.

Year-round Camping
- 48 electrical sites with water (first-come, first-served)
- 3 reservable rustic log cabins, one pet-friendly (#43)
- Paved parking, picnic tables, and fire rings at all sites
- Flush toilets and hot showers
- River and gravel bar access for fishing
- Firewood for sale (see park hosts)
- 3 reservable group picnic areas, available May–Oct.

Universal Access
Campsite (#19), cabin (#44), and one picnic area are accessible according to the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Camping Rates
Rates are subject to change. You can get up-to-date information by calling 1-800-551-6949 or visiting www.oregonstateparks.org.

Watch the River from a Cabin
The three rustic cabins at Loeb overlook the scenic Chetco River, making them a relaxing refuge. They are furnished with lights, heat, beds with vinyl-covered mattresses, tables and chairs, and a lockable door. Pets are permitted in cabin #43. Call 1-800-452-5687 or visit www.oregonstateparks.org to get more information or to make a reservation.

Reserve early! Reserve cabins one day to nine months in advance by calling 1-800-452-5687 or visiting www.oregonstateparks.org.

Need to cancel your reservation? Follow these guidelines.
If your reservation is for today, call 541-469-2021. Otherwise, call 1-800-452-5687.

From Myrtlewood to Redwood
Follow the park’s 3/4-mile-long Riverview Trail to the U.S. Forest Service’s Redwood Nature Trail, which offers access to the northernmost stand of redwoods on the Pacific Coast. A trailhead with parking is located near the park’s riverside day-use entrance.

Great Fishing and Wildlife Viewing
The Chetco River offers some of the finest fall and winter salmon and steelhead fishing on Oregon’s south coast. You can bank fish from the gravel bar or use a drift boat. Throughout the spring and summer, you may see scampering chipmunks, soaring osprey, or a family of river otters frolicking in the water.

More to See and Do

Harris Beach State Park: The long sandy beach at this park is a beachcomber's delight with rocky outcrops for tidepooling fun, too. Bring the binoculars to watch the nesting sea birds and other wildlife on the largest island off the Oregon coast, a formation called alternately “Bird” or “Goat” Island.

Samuel Boardman State Scenic Corridor: This 12-mile-long park along U.S. 101 features several wayside viewpoints, some with picnic tables where you can sit and enjoy unparalleled ocean scenery. To really savor the offshore seascapes, explore the coastline park by foot on the Oregon Coast Trail. The southern end of the park is only three miles north of Harris Beach.

Boats in Brookings: A boat ramp, moorage facilities, boat rentals, and charter boat service are located at the south jetty near the mouth of the Chetco River.

Jet boat rides: Gold Beach, 30 miles north of Brookings, offers jet boat rides up the famous Rogue River.

California Redwoods: Beautiful stands of these ancient trees can be found in parks from 20 minutes to a few hours south of Brookings, making for a nice day trip down the coast toward California.
