Mountain Dale Cabin Village
The cabin village provides a panorama of the forest with a skyline dominated by the Oregon Coast Range. Its 15 cabins (three double-room and 12 single-room) sleep up to five adults. Each cabin features electricity, heat, and a ceiling fan; beds with vinyl-covered mattresses (futon double and twin bunk beds), a table and chairs, and a front porch bench; a picnic table and fire pit; access to a centrally located cabin village restroom with flush toilets and hot showers; parking for one vehicle per cabin; and access to a reservable meeting hall with a kitchen and restroom facilities. Cabins 6, 7, and 8 are pet friendly; up to two pets (cats and/or dogs only) are allowed for an additional fee.

Wooded Trails
With more than 30 miles of multi-use trails, Stub Stewart is a premier destination for hikers, bicyclists, and horseback riders. Many of the trails have names recalling the area’s logging history. Some connect with the 23-mile Banks-Vernonia State Trail, which bisects Stub Stewart for nearly 4 miles on a north-south route. Other trails are specially designated for mountain bikers and disc golfers to enjoy. For more information, see the park trails map.

Day-use Amenities and Fees
From the Hilltop Day-use Area, you can enjoy the grand westward view or set off to explore the trail system. A picnic shelter (first-come, first-served unless reserved) is available for group functions; call 1-800-551-6949 for fees. East of the day-use area are two mountain-style disc golf courses. The 9-hole course is beginner-friendly while the 18-hole course is meant for intermediate or advanced players. A third 3-hole putter course is located between East and West Dairy Creek Camps.

Day-use parking permits are required in the park all year. You can buy a daily permit at the day-use area registration station, or purchase annual and 24-month passes at the Welcome Center registration window, Discovery Depot, park office and online at store.oregonstateparks.org. Your camping receipt serves as a daily permit for the days that you are registered.
